ENTRY RULES

The NW FL Fair Fine Arts Show is open to living artists from Northwest Florida. All work must be original, (no giclée or kits) entirely the work of the entrant, and completed within the last four years. Artwork that has won a cash award in a previous ADSO exhibit is not eligible. All mediums of fine artwork will be accepted. Installations are not eligible for entry. Students (High school/Middle school) should refer to the student entry form (see your Art teacher).

SIZE: All two-dimensional works must be properly framed, securely wired and ready for hanging – WORK WILL NOT BE HUNG IF NOT SECURE. No sawtooth or center hangers or string allowed. Works larger than 46" in either direction will be treated and charged as two entries. Individual pieces of work completed in a series will count separately. All works, including reliefs and sculptures, must be able to be moved by two people and may not exceed 50 lbs in weight.

NOTICE TO ENTRANTS: ADSO reserves the right to refuse any work considered unsuitable for a family-oriented venue. All works must remain on display until the night the Fair closes. A 10 % commission will be charged for works sold. The artist is responsible for Florida sales tax on any sales. Artist removing their work before closing time will not be permitted to enter any ADSO art shows for the next five years.

LIABILITY: All reasonable care will be taken in handling and displaying works entered. Security will be provided through noon Monday, November 9th. The NW Florida Fair and ADSO will not be liable for any claim, loss or damage.

JUDGES:

Adults: Steven Phillips
High school / Middle school Students: Joanna Ellington

AWARDS: Cash prizes along with Ribbons will be awarded to Best in Show, First, Second, and Third Places and the recipient of ADSO Award. Honorable Mentions – Ribbon only.
Student Awards: See student entry form.

ENTRY FEES: Adults (18 and over) $ 25.00. Artists may enter up to five (5) pieces of artwork. Students must use student entry form. Make checks payable to ADSO, and submit entry fee with artwork and completed forms at the Fairgrounds on entry day.
